

I have been very pleased with the Wisconsin no-call program and I do not wish to have our state regulations weakened by federalizing the no-call program. My hope is for government to support the desire of the individual and this individual desires that you leave this good program alone.